

Subject: Standings after Stage 7

Date: Saturday, June 27, 2015 11:25 AM

Greetings from Death Valley. It is 106 degrees here. I feel sorry for the racers.

Tom Jones took the day off and Taylor is navigating for her dad, Rod. Their great time yesterday was 35th place for the day and moved them to 45th in cumulative standings.

Don Kloth and Dick Crabtree finished in 54th place yesterday and are in 54th in cumulative standings.

We are so proud to of our teams. There were nine cars yesterday that did not finish. It was a day of endurance. Our Tour will have dinner with the racers tonight so I hope to hear a lot of stories to share with you.

Patty
